ABOUT THE COVER

FRONT COVER

- Watercolor Painting of the Morrison Plantation Smokehouse

The rock smokehouse was built by enslaved persons, and is depicted on our cover by watercolorist, the late Margaret Arnold of Arkadelphia. The original painting was done for the Fay McMillan family in the 1970's. The painting was submitted for the cover by the owners, Jean McMillan Harper and her son, Brad Smith.

BACK COVER
